

Jim has been on the Barbershop Harmony Society's Singing category Board of Review for six years and is the incoming 2009 Category Specialist in Singing. He has been a society member since 1978 and has competed on the International contest stage 38 times in quartets and choruses. He is a founder of and currently sings with the Hilltop, Minnesota chapter's Great Northern Union chorus, a 20-time International top 10 chorus, and sings with After Midnight, a 2008 International quartet competitor.