

John Coffin, has been a barbershopper for 37 years. Since moving to Denver, CO in 1980, John has been associated with three different choruses, a member in one, director in two, and earned Barbershopper of the Year from all three. John has also served as Rocky Mountain District Music Educator, coaches quartets and choruses, and teaches classes at Harmony Schools all over the Rocky Mountain District. In 1992, these activities earned him the Rocky Mountain District Barbershopper of the Year. John has been a certified Presentation Judge for 15 years and is currently serving as the Rocky Mountain District Vice President of Contest and Judging. John sings with the Denver Mile High Sound of the Rockies chorus and sings baritone in the Sound Bytes quartet.
